

International Expert Consultants

A Professional Certification Body of International Expert Consultants

About IEC, UK

The International Expert Consultants (IEC), UK is an international Professional body established for the purpose of providing general management consultancy knowledge and skill to senior professionals in all types of specialist fields, (such as Financial Services Consulting, Human Resource Management Consulting, Recruitment Services Consulting, Legal services Consulting, Medical Services Consulting, Pharmaceutical Services Consulting, Marketing Services Consulting, Research service Consulting, Agricultural Services Consulting, etc.) on top of their sectorial specialist professional expertise, in order to enhance their specialist consulting skills in their chosen fields.

IEC-UK also provides a professional platform to its members to showcase their areas of expertise and provide millions of users worldwide with access to the information and expertise that they need by serving as a "who is who" of experts at the top of their respective fields. IEC-UK include authors, consultants, engineers, physicians, professors, scientists, specialists and more.

In summary, IEC-UK Membership provides:

- Respect as an International Expert Consulting Professional
- A competitive advantage when marketing your services
- A sense of achievement and confidence
- A credential for your resume when applying for quality jobs
- Evidence and Assurance to clients of your International Expert Consulting Pedigree